

Alida J. Lucas

Professional Profile

- Team player with teachers, administrators, and parents.
- Works well in a competitive and challenging environment.
- Skilled problem solver with leadership experience.
- Respects each child's strengths and unique personality.

Education

- BA Degree Summa Cum Laude, Child Development, June 1991 California State University, Los Angeles
- Masters Degree, Education, in process University of New England, Biddeford, Maine

Teaching Credential / Certificates

- Clear California Multiple Subject Credential, University of La Verne 1999
- CLAD Certification 2001

Honors / Activities

- The Dean's List for 1989 and 1990, California State University, Los Angeles.
- The Outstanding Student Award in the field of Child Development for 1990, California State University, Los Angeles

Site / District Training and Activities

- Teacher Specialist-English Language Development, PUSD 2005-To Present
- Teacher Specialist/Reading Coach, PUSD 2004-2005
- Teaching Teacher Specialist, PUSD, 2001-2004
- Reading Intervention District Trainer, PUSD, 2000-2003
 - Project Read, Phonology & Linguistics
 - Discover Reading
- Master Trainer in Technology (MTT) PUSD, 1999-2002
- Teaching Teacher Specialist (on assignment) 12/01-3/02
 - Created/established The Village Educational Resource Center(VERC)
- Lead Teacher, PUSD, 2000-2001
- Site Trainer, Decker Elementary, 1995-2001
 - Project Read, Phonology & Linguistics
 - SST classroom intervention strategies
 - Computers in the classroom
- Various Site Leadership roles, Decker Elementary, 1995-2001

Classroom Experience

- Classroom TTS Grades 2&4, Pueblo Elementary School, 9/03-2/04
- Classroom TTS Grades 2&3, The Village Educational Resource Center, 3/02-6/03
- Classroom TTS Grade 2, Pueblo School, 9/01-12/02
- Classroom Teacher Grades 4 &5, Decker Elementary, 9/95-6/01
- Substitute Teacher, PUSD, 9/91-9/95